7 WHEREAS, Staff Sergeant Davis was a native of Opelousas where he attended high 8 school and enlisted in the Army right after graduation, beginning a military career spanning 9 nearly 20 years; and

10 WHEREAS, Staff Sergeant Davis was stationed at Fort Polk where he was a member 11 of the 603rd Transportation Company, 142nd Corps Support Battalion when the unit received

2 honored to be a part of protecting his homeland from the threat of terrorism by its enemies;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, Staff Sergeant Davis will be forever remembered by those who served 5 with him for his dedication to his country, his mission, and his unit, always placing the needs

7 mainly with insuring that the men of his command returned home safely to their loved ones 8 and their lives; and

16 WHEREAS, while the loss of Staff Sergeant Davis and his fallen comrades was 17 almost more than his family and friends could endure, their ultimate sacrifice for their 18 country made citizens around the nation rally in support of all the brave men and women 19 gallantly fighting this nation's war on terror and serves as a reminder that freedom is never 20 free and sometimes Americans must fight to protect the freedoms and liberties that all of its 21 citizens now enjoy.
